The origin of the Mabee families of New Brunswick and Maine begins with the exodus of Loyalists from New York and New Jersey in 1783. Therefore, to set the stage for the records that are contained in this file, it is helpful to examine several excerpts from the book "Loyalists to Canada". For the sake of conciseness, only excerpts specifically relevant to those families who remained in the New Brunswick and Eastport Maine areas are included herein.

Jeremiah Mabee, his wife and 3 children, from Westchester County, were passengers on the "Mercury" arriving in Saint John with the October fleet in 1783. He signed a petition there on 3/3/1786. Grantee at Belle Isle, Kings County, NB. Died at Kingston, Kent County, on 4/23/1824 at age 85.

Gilbert Mabee, from Westchester County, signed a petition at Saint John on 3/3/1786. He was a grantee in Kings County, NB.

Jasper Mabee from NY settled at Saint John, NB, and died there in 1822.

Jacob Mabee: Loyalist from Dutchess County, named in a list of Loyalists in NYC during war. Property confiscated. Son Solomon impressed by British Navy. Arrived in Saint John on the ship "Union" with a wife and two children over 10, on 16 April 1783. Grantee at St. John, signed a petition there on 12/24/1784. Settled in St. Stephen, NB, and died around 1820.

Solomon Mabee, son of Jacob, arrived in St. John on the "Montague" with the July fleet of 1783. Solomon went to St. Stephen, then moved to Eastport, Maine, where he settled as an original grantee in 1788, lot #21, 74 acres. Solomon (d. in 1828, age 63) was one of the first (1802) Baptist deacons in Eastport. Buried in Hillside Cemetery, Eastport Maine.

William Mabee: named on a list of Loyalists in NYC during war. Arrived in St. John on the "Union" in April 1783. Signed a petition at St. John on 1/10/1786.

Elias Mabee and wife Joanna settled in Eastport Maine.

Specifically excluded from the following are records pertaining to descendents of George Mabey, a Loyalist who settled on P. E. I., and some of whose descendents moved to New Brunswick in the mid-1850s.
